

How Writers Write Poetry 2014

CLASS SIX • Assignment

Write a sonnet with a major turn in voice, style, argument, or attention. Or write a poem using at least six of what Dora Malech describes in today's video session as "hinge words." (Hint: "Hinge words" may be any coordinating conjunctions such as "and," "but," "or," "nor," "yet," or "so," but may also be "until," "even so," "except," or any other word or phrase that turns the logic of your sentence.)
